Adam Unick is an associate in McCarthy Tétrault's National Tax Group, based in the firm's Calgary office. He maintains a comprehensive tax practice focused on domestic and cross-border corporate tax law planning, reorganizations and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Adam worked as an associate at a large Western Canadian law firm.

Adam received his Juris Doctor (with great distinction) from the University of Saskatchewan in 2018 where he won a variety of honours for his academic achievements, worked on the Editorial Board of the Saskatchewan Law Review and competed in the Bowman National Tax Moot. He has completed all three levels of CPA Canada's In-Depth Tax Program.

Adam was called to the Saskatchewan Bar in 2019 and the Alberta Bar in 2022. He is a member of the Law Society of Alberta, the Law Society of Saskatchewan (inactive), the Canadian Bar Association, the Canadian Tax Foundation, the Canadian Petroleum Tax Society and the International Fiscal Association. From 2019 to 2021 he was the Chair of the Canadian Bar Association (Saskatchewan) Tax Section.
